

ALONG THE CONFERENCE

A unique experience between modernity and tradition.

WELCOME TO
CASABLANCA

While Casablanca may not be the capital of Morocco, it is regarded as the country's metropolis due to its high population density and economic dynamism, As the hub of commercial and financial activities, Casablanca holds a special place within the kingdom.

CASABLANCA

Get ready to experince an unorgettable journey

FIRST DAY!

Arrival to Casablanca

- Arrive in Casablanca and check into your designated hotel.
- Enjoy a welcome dinner featuring traditional Moroccan cuisine at a local restaurant.
- Rest and relax after your journey.

Upcoming International Conference

International Conference of Sustainable Construction

SEPTEMBER 13TH-14TH, 2024
08H30-18H30

HILTON GARDEN INN
Bd Zoulikha Nasri, Casablanca 20000

International Conference of net zero energy commercial buildings

NOVEMBER 14TH-15TH, 2024
08H30-18H30

HILTON GARDEN INN
Bd Zoulikha Nasri, Casablanca 20000

FOURTH DAY!

Morning:

- Breakfast at the hotel.
- Visit the old Medina and Bab Marrakech.

Afternoon:

The old Medina is a run-down and disconnected neighborhood with an authentic residential atmosphere where you can find typical merchants selling their goods.

Bab Marrakech was created in the 20th century, with its unique architecture and special ambiance, the neighborhood showcases an assortment of handicrafts and contemporary items.

- Free lunch.
- Visit to the Temple Beth EL.

The Temple Beth-EL is a Jewish synagogue located in Casablanca, Morocco. It is often considered the centerpiece of a once-vibrant Jewish community. Its stained glass windows and other artistic elements are what draw tourists to this synagogue.

Evening:

- Group dinner in a restaurant (beach sight).
- Visit to the corniche.
- Return to the hotel.

The Corniche of casablanca (seaside) is a great place for stroll by the water. Much of the coastline is now home to luxury hotels and restaurants. It is where locals go to relax and have fun.

LAST DAY!

Morning:

- Breakfast at the hotel.
- Visit of the Habous district.

it is a district built by the French between 1918 and 1955 to create a new Medina. It features wider streets and modern facilities.

Additionally, it houses various traditional markets as well as the Royal Place which is worth seeing while strolling around.

Afternoon:

- Free lunch.
- Visit of the Hassan II Mosque.
- Free time to explore the city or do some shopping.

The Hassan II Mosque is the fourth largest mosque in the world, covering 9 hectares with the world's tallest minaret. Its surprisingly complex decoration from Moroccan craftsmanship covers every inch of its surface. Located on the edge of the sea, its location is quite spectacular.

Thank You

We Hope To See You